Notes from Rotary North Hobart meeting 28 January 2020

Brian C reported that Esther, a Kenyan student sponsored by Rotary Club of North Hobart, had now graduated as a teacher.

Jim C asked for volunteers for the next Bunnings Mornington barbecue on Thursday 20 February: the roster was filled by meeting's end.

David E requested donations of women's clothing for Caroline House and asked these be delivered in repurposed packaging, not new plastic bags, as a nod to Tasmanian Rotarians Against Plastic (TRAP).

Ros T thanked Velja U for establishing that the Estia Greek Festival is on Sunday 15 March. Volunteers required to man the gates between 10am and 4pm please.

Ros T noted that the Building Future Leaders workshop has had to be moved to the weekend of 21-22 March.

Ros T urged members to promote the International Women's Day cocktail party on Saturday 7 March, and thanked Focal Print North Hobart for producing 100 professional standard posters to promote the event at no charge to Rotary. Chris W also offered a vote of thanks to Turnbulls Funerals for their hospitality and wonderful support of the event. Thanks to Peter O for arranging that.

Jenny K was interviewed on ABC Breakfast Radio last Saturday about her forthcoming trip to West Timor on behalf of Rotarians Against Malaria (RAM).

The raffle was won by Rex M.

A highly engaging Behind the Badge talk was given by Julian T.

Messages from President Roslyn

On Tuesday 10 March we will be celebrating World Rotaract Week and we'll have guests from two clubs joining us to hear District Rotaract Representative Holly Corbett speak. We had already invited members of Rotaract Club of Sandy Bay to this meeting and then we were approached by Rotary Club of Sandy Bay to have a joint meeting and this date seemed perfect.

The Rotary Club of Sandy Bay has strongly promoted our International Women's Day event on Sat 7 March and I would like to mention to you their World Peace and Understanding Dinner on Monday 24 February. I will be attending and we are all welcome. It is $50 per person and the idea is to invite a person born overseas.

Please book now for our exciting IWD cocktail party and invite some friends. It will be a beautiful evening. We need volunteers to welcome people at the door and help on the RAM stall. https://www.trybooking.com/BFYQB

Have you looked at coming along to this year's Rotary District Conference? If you are not free to attend the whole weekend, you can choose your preferred sessions. https://rotary9830.org.au/district-conference
